“Ice Cream, Music and Poetry at “The Pit”

Thursday Evening, Sept. 18 at 7pm

In honor of the brand new fire pit at the Empty Saddle Club, PVPHA would like to invite everyone to come and enjoy an evening by the fire, eating ice cream and fellowshiping together. The campfire atmosphere lends itself to opening this event up to our cowboy and cowgirl musicians and poets to come and share their music and poems with us. This is not a poetry festival so there will be no formal program or organization, no sound system and the only light provided to read by will be supplied by the setting sun and the campfire. If anyone has a song to share with us feel free to bring along your acoustic guitar, mandolin, harmonica, etc. Some might even call it an ‘open pit night’ at the Empty Saddle Club. It’s kind of a cowboy jam session. We are looking forward to enjoying the beauty of an Indian Summer evening around the campfire, ice cream social-izing, cowboy music and poetry.
